PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The theatre, from time immemorial, has been considered by man to be a means of education, communication and inspiration as well as entertainment, and a source of expression for creative genius; and

WHEREAS: Enlightened people all over the world are becoming more and more conscious of the important part which the theatre can play in the proper promotion of international understanding and good will; and

WHEREAS: The theatre in all its professional and amateur phases is being challenged by our scientific and technological society to prove its worth and value as a vital part of our lives; and

WHEREAS: Many colleges and institutions of learning are planning to emphasize the place of the theatre in our modern world through a special convocation which will show the theatre as a vehicle of peace;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of March, 1958, to be:

INTERNATIONAL THEATRE MONTH

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 19 day of Feb., 1958.
